Our lead teachers and counselors include Ms. Murphy, Professor Nefissi, Dr. Lu, Ms. Ivy, Ms. Lindsay, Ms. Holly, Ms. Laura, Ms. Annie, Mr. Darcy, Mr. Ho, and Ms. Caroline.

Teachers' bio is on the website: www.oaktonacademy.com

Ms. Murphy has over 37 years of experience as an English teacher in public and private schools. She has served as the Department Chair of the English Department in several high schools and was the Instructional Leadership Specialist in English and Content Literacy. With her teaching experience and extensive knowledge of the SAT format, contents, and requirements, she has helped Oakton Academy students successfully improve their scores (50 points to 120 points).

Professor Nefissi has been teaching math for over 22 years at the middle, high school, and college level. He was instrumental in establishing the advanced mathematics program at the Governor's School at Innovation Park and served as the Mathematics Chairperson. He is a dedicated, engaging teacher who has received overwhelming praise from our parents and students. Many of his students achieved perfect SAT Math test scores of 800.

Ms. Ivy is an accomplished writer and teacher who has taught English at the college, and high school level. In 2008 she won College Poetry Prize for her work. Ms. Ivy graduated with greatest honor of summa cum laude, she also has a JD Degree, as well as a MFA (Master of Fine Arts) in Creative Writing. Her dedication to our students, and her teaching style has been praised by our parents.

Ms. Holly is a current college Professor who has over 10 years of teaching experience. She has taught English at local private schools: Flint Hill, and Nysmith school. She brings a creative, dynamic, and student-centered teaching approach to the classroom. Her excellent teaching experience has enabled our students achieve high in the most recent TJ and AOS admission tests. Her students will also perform Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" on April 7 (4-6 pm), and you are invited to come and watch.

Ms. Caroline is a current FCPS teacher who has been teaching AP Calculus, Pre-calculus, Algebra 2 for the past 8 years. She has a master degree of Math Education from Vanderbilt University, and she has played critical role in developing Pre-Calculus and Applied Calculus for FCPS math teachers. She has built up a reputation for being the most enthusiastic and passionate math teacher in the community.
